

CATALYST INSTITUTE SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Limited scholarships are available for attendance at New Mexico Media Literacy Project's annual spring and summer Catalyst Institute. We do our best to make it possible for people with limited resources to attend. We especially encourage applications from practitioners employed at a nonprofit organization or working in a consulting capacity who can demonstrate financial need, from people of color, LGBTQI community, women, people with disabilities and from students enrolled in a media literacy studies program.

Scholarships include only partial remission of the Catalyst Institute registration fee. The deadline for receipt of applications is May 1, 2008 for the July 22-25, 2008 Catalyst Institute.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be able to demonstrate financial need.

Note: Only one person per organization/institution may qualify for a scholarship.

Criteria:

- All applicants must prepare a one-page statement (400 words maximum):

-- Describing your interest in media literacy and how attendance at this Institute could benefit your research, teaching, study or work. Specifically address the issue of how you will utilize the material and information from the Institute. Also, please tell us how you heard about the Institute.

-- Describing why financial aid is needed. Please include a budget of projected expenses and other sources of funding for the Catalyst Institute (registration could be covered by the scholarship, so include hotel and travel costs).

-- A completed Catalyst Institute registration form

-- A completed scholarship application
